

Declaration of Stephanie Frank Singer, Ph. D.
Regarding Allocation of Electronic Voting Machines in Pennsylvania

I, Stephanie Frank Singer, declare under penalty of perjury and state as follows:

1. I am the Managing Partner of Campaign Scientific LC, a consulting firm specializing in the management of voting related data, including voter files, registration statistics, and voting machine allocation. I have a Ph.D. in mathematics from New York University.

2. Annexed to the Declaration of Andrew G. Celli, Jr., Esq., dated October 22, 2008, is a spreadsheet reflecting the number of registered voters in each of 9,329 voting precincts in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This data in this spreadsheet is the Full Voter Export file from the Pennsylvania Department of State, as of September 29, 2008; I obtained it from the Department of State.

3. The data reflect that, of the 9,329 precincts in the Commonwealth, 2,167 are precincts at which more than 1200 voters are registered to vote.
